A Prayer for Vocation and Ministry

Almighty God, look with compassion on the world you have redeemed by the death of Your son Jesus Christ. Move the hearts of many to offer themselves for the ministry of Your Church, strengthen us to bear witness to Christ, using the gifts received, so that by our lives and labours Your light may shine in the darkness and the coming of Your Kingdom be advanced; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour Amen.

Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know ?
"Everyone has a vocation. And all vocations are "religious." This does not mean that everyone is called to serve the church in a professional manner; to be a bishop, priest, deacon, monk, nun… or church worker of one sort or another. Obviously not all are called to these specifically ecclesiastical ministries. But everyone is called to serve God and their fellow human beings in some form of life which God Himself wills."

Quote For Reflection
"To find one's vocation demands that one really wants to do so. It sounds simple. And it is. But, to quote the Lord once more, "Few there be who find it" (Matthew 7:14). The reason is that it takes courage to allow the Lord to speak, or rather, to hear the Lord when He speaks, and to follow Him. It is also quite painful. Our own will has to go. Our egocentric desires have to be denied. Our ideas about ourselves have to be abandoned. Our personal plans and projects have to be discarded. Our agendas of action have to be thrown away. We have to say to God: Speak Lord, your servant is ready! We have to respond to God: Let it be to me according to Your word! And we have to mean it." Fr. Thomas Hokpo

Question For Reflection
- How much of my life have I surrendered to doing God's will?
