Dear People of God,

We live in a society where the need for money is great. Even the church is experiencing a financial crisis. In the Gospel, Luke 34 we are reminded that, "where our treasure is, our heart is there also." Where is your heart? Where is your true love?

The world is dominated by a money culture. The church has sought to present various theologies, both for and against money, which are opposing views. One group promotes a PROSPERITY GOSPEL, where Christians are encouraged to give large amounts to churches, in order to receive a blessing from God that will make them rich and prosperous. On the other hand, there are those who teach that God does not favour the rich and it is better to be poor.

Anglicans support neither. God's plan is for us to turn to Him and follow His commands. God's economy is for us to use our resources (collective and personal) to enhance the lives of others. It is for the rich, poor and middle classes, to be in solidarity in building a better society where selfishness, corruption, greed and politics do not lead to the suffering of all.

The fact that one group is hungry, means that all others will be affected in some way. The fact that some live in comfort, means that all will be impacted in some way. So the question is asked again; where is your heart? Our heart should be set on loving God and serving each other (Mark 10:45). God has blessed Jamaica with enough wealth as a country, but we are not good stewards of that wealth. We need to be fair in how we handle the financial, natural and human resources.

Trusting in riches will make us greedy and uncaring. Trusting in God and loving God means we will love and care for each other, while seeking to build a just and harmonious society.

A warm welcome to all our visitors worshipping with us today, especially Kiwanis Club of West St. Andrew, along with children from the Salvation Army NEST. The NEST is one of their Outreach Programmes.

Other Methods of Evangelism

Relational Evangelism

Lifestyle evangelism occurs when a person establishes a rapport with a person and over a period of time earns the right to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is much different than “cold turkey” evangelism where we go door to door unannounced and share the gospel.

Friendship evangelism creates an environment of friendship and trust, which allow an unbeliever to become receptive and open to the gospel of Jesus Christ. In this case, the believer and unbeliever build a trusting relationship, and the unbeliever comes to understand and embrace the belief system of the Christian. We feel that an unbeliever is most likely to give a believer the opportunity to share his or her faith when the believer’s life has first proven her/his subsequent words to be truthful and life-changing.

Servant evangelism takes several forms. Some of these are:

† Small things done with great love, such as random acts of kindness

† Meeting the needs of others through service projects

These actions tend to soften the hearts of persons who are not yet Christians, with the intent of sharing the gospel with them. They are done with no anticipation of being paid for this service.

Proclamation evangelism

Proclamation evangelism involves verbally sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ to a lost world in many ways, such as:

† Preaching in a revival or on a street corner.

† Going door to door and sharing the gospel.

† Distributing gospel tracts in public venues.

There are many different types of evangelism including mass evangelism, personal evangelism, evangelistic preaching, literature evangelism, church evangelistic crusades, evangelistic counseling, radio and television programs, entertainment, Sunday school evangelism, and evangelistic bible study, camps and VBS. The aim is sharing God’s love with others for them to decide to follow him.

Psalm 86: 11 - 17 Tune

1. Teach me your way, O Lord,
And I will keep our law;
O knit my heart to you that I
May hold your Name in Awe
2. With all my heart, O Lord,
I praise your Name today
For in your love you saved me
From the power of the grave.
3. A band of violent men:
The arrogant arise; They seek
my life, they have not set
The Lord before their eyes.
4. You, Lord, are slow to wrath,
Compassionate and true;
Turn to me and be merciful,
Give me your strength anew.
5. Show me your favor now,
That those who hate may see
And be ashamed because you,
Lord, have helped and strengthen
me.
6. Give God the Father praise,
And praise to God the Son
To God the Spirit equal praise
Eternal Three in One.

Offertory: Thank you for giving me the morning.

1. Thank you for giving me the morning. Thank you for ev'ry day that's new. Thank you that I can know my worries can be cast on you.
2. Thank you for all my friends and brothers. Thank you for all the men that live. Thank you for even greatest enemies I can forgive.
3. Thank you, I have my occupation. Thank you for ev'ry pleasure small. Thank you for music, light and gladness. Thank you for them all.
4. Thank you for many little sorrows. Thank you for ev'ry kindly word. Thank you for ev'rywhere your guidance reaches ev'ry land.
5. Thank you, I see your Word has meaning. Thank you, I know your Spirit here. Thank you because you love all people, those both far and near.
6. Thank you, O Lord, you spoke unto us. Thank you that for our words you care. Thank you, O Lord, you came among us, bread and wine to share.
7. Thank you, O Lord, your love is boundless. Thank you that I am full of you. Thank you, you made me feel so glad and thankful as I do.

I believe in Jesus (Creed)

I believe in Jesus
I believe He is the Son of God
I believe He died and rose again
I believe He paid for us all

And I believe He is here now
Standing in our midst
Here With the power to heal now
And the grace to forgive

During Communion

He is here, Hallelujah,
He is here, Hallelujah, He is here, Amen
He is here, Holy Holy, I will bless His name again
He is here, listen closely
Hear Him calling out your name
He is here, you can touch Him
You will never be the same

You Are God Alone

1. You are not a God created by human hands You are not a God
dependent on any mortal man
You are not a God in need of anything we can give By Your plan that just the way it is

Rep. versel

er, none can contend

and praise will never end
