All Saints' Day, also known as Feast of All Saints is a solemnity celebrated on 1 November by the Catholic Church and several Protestant denominations, and on the first Sunday after Pentecost in Eastern Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy, in honour of all the saints, known and unknown. The liturgical celebration begins at Vespers on the evening of 31 October and ends at the close of 1 November. It is thus the day before All Souls' Day.

Christians who celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day do so in the fundamental belief that there is a prayerful spiritual bond between those in heaven (the "Church triumphant"), and the living (the "Church militant").

The festival was retained after the Reformation in the calendar of the Anglican Church and in many Lutheran churches. In the Lutheran churches, such as the Church of Sweden, it assumes a role of general commemoration of the dead. In the Swedish calendar, the observance takes place on the Saturday between October 31 and November 6. In many Lutheran Churches, it is moved to the first Sunday of November. It is also celebrated by other Protestants of the English tradition, such as the United Church of Canada, the Methodist churches, and the Wesleyan Church.

Protestants generally regard all true Christian believers as saints and if they observe All Saints Day at all they use it to remember all Christians both past and present. It is held, not only to remember Saints, but also to remember all those that have died that were members of the local church congregation. In some congregations, a candle is lit by the Acolyte as each person's name is called out by the clergy. Prayers and responsive readings may accompany the event. Often, the names of those who have died in the past year are affixed to a memorial plaque.

There will be only two services on November 30, 6:30 & 8:00 a.m.

We extend a warm welcome to all our visitors who are worshipping with us.

Canticle: Sing Glory to God (Gloria)

Sing glory to God in the height of the heavens
 Salvation and peace to his people on earth;
 Our king and our saviour, our God and our Father,
 we worship and praise you and sing of your worth.
 Creation unites in the power of the spirit,
 in praise of the father, through Jesus, the Son.
 so complex, so simple, so clear, so mysterious,
 Our God ever Three, yet eternally one!

Our Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father Lord God, Lamb of God, by nations adored,
 your blood takes away all the sin of creation:
 have mercy upon us, for whom it was poured.
 For you are our saviour, our only Redeemer,
 who came all our gladness and sorrows to share:
 you sit at the side, the right hand of the father,
 have mercy upon us, and answer our prayer.

For you, only you, we acknowledge as holy,
 we name you only as our Saviour and Lord;
 You only, O Christ, with the Spirit exalted,
 are one with the Father, for ever adored.
 Creation unites in the power of the Spirit,
 in praise of the Father, through Jesus the Son.
 So complex, so simple, so clear, so mysterious,
 our God ever Three, yet eternally one!

Offertory Hymn The church of Christ in every age,

The church of Christ in every age,
 beset by change but spirit led,
 Must claim the test its heritage
 and keep on rising from the dead.

Across the world, across the street,
 the victims of injustice cry
 for shelter and for bread to eat
 and never live until they die.

Then let the servant church arise
 a caring church that longs to be a partner in Christ sacrifice,
 and clothed in Christ's humanity.

For Christ alone, whose blood was shed,
 can cure the fever in our blood
 And teach us how to share our bread
 and feed the starving multitude.

We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord:
 to care for all without reserve
 And spread Christ's liberating word.
