God's goal isn't simply to keep you and your family reasonably comfortable - He has a kingdom to build, and you're a part of His management team in accomplishing that plan. We need to understand that opportunities to achieve God's agenda in building His kingdom involve not only our material possessions, but also our abilities, knowledge, skills and relationships.

To make it really simple - everything from your backyard and bank account to your mind and body - is a resource that you must manage for God. No false humility required here, you are an important member of God's management team - stewardship. You may be thinking, Sure, sounds good, but I have a job, medical bills, the car needs tires, the kids need braces and the economy has all but flat-lined. So, if God owns everything - can't He do most of this stuff Himself or at least help with some of my bills?

Building the kingdom of God and stewardship aren't simply "nice ideas" for which missionaries, pastors, Bible teachers and youth workers are responsible. Kingdom building certainly includes those responsibilities, but ministry and stewardship begins with God working inside of you and me.

The key to having an appropriate sense of stewardship, with the ability to make clear and wise choices, is to consciously take this first step: hand over ownership of all your resources to God. You could look at it this way. You don't have - and you never will have - enough money, possessions or time not to take this step. The alternative will draw you to, or keep you in, the modern rat race that leads nowhere.

Stewardship can seem daunting. After all, being managers of our families, possessions, the earth and builders of a kingdom isn't small stuff. But remember, God promises us that He'll never require something of us that we cannot accomplish. Furthermore, whatever God may require of us, He provides the ability to achieve.

"God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed" (2 Corinthians 9:8).

We extend a warm welcome to all visitors worshiping with us today.

Called to be God's Steward in Challenging Times

God made each of us his steward and has given us abilities and talents that are unique to accomplish the purposes of God. As stewards who have received God's gift of time, abilities and treasure, we are accountable to God for their use or misuse, as God is the source and giver of all good and gracious gift; Time, Wealth, Relationships, Talents, Property, the Gospel, the environment and Monetary - Treasure. When we respond with gratitude and give regularly we experience the joy of the Lord and peace in our souls.

O changeless Christ, for ever new (Tune Westminster)

O changeless Christ, for ever new,
who walked our earthly ways,
still draw our hearts as once you drew the hearts of other days.

As once you spoke by plain and hill
or taught by shore and sea, so be today our teacher still,
O Christ of Galilee.

And as of old who prayed your healing hand was shown,
so be your touch upon us laid,
unseen but not unknown.

O changeless Christ, till life is past your blessing still be given;
then bring us home, to taste at last the timeless joys of heaven.

THE PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Leader: Father, we give thanks for all who have enriched the church by their faith. We pray for the mission and ministry St. Andrew Parish Church that we may be good stewards of our time, abilities and monetary resources. We pray for those called to be pastors and shepherds of your flock, especially those who are being called to offer themselves for ordination at this time. We remember those who teach in Sunday schools and day schools, those who preach the word and administer the sacraments for John, Archbishop, Howard, Diocesan Bishop, Robert and Leon Suffragan Bishops, for Sirrano, Olando, Andrea, and all clergy and church workers.

Silence May Be Kept

All: Lord God of love, as you come to us and give yourself for us and to us, make us aware of your coming and your generosity, that we may rejoice in your presence and give our love to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Did You know?

Sin is our refusal or failure to do God's will, either by disobedience or by omission. In these ways, we distort our relationship with God, with ourselves, with other people and with all creation. (Book of Common Prayer, 1993)

Quote for Reflection

“Keep a clear eye toward life's end. Do not forget your purpose and destiny as God's creature. What you are in his sight is what you are and nothing more. Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take nothing that you have received...but only what you have given; a full heart enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice, and courage.”
(St. Francis of Assisi)
