Dear People of God,

What is expected of a disciple of Jesus, is an important question for us to reflect on as Christians in our modern society. All who seek to be a disciple of Jesus, must first accept the price paid by Jesus Christ on Mount Calvary's cross, and make a commitment to a life of witness as a servant of God. Through the life of faith in the Father and obedience to the Father's will, Jesus was led to the cross; through His redemptive suffering, all humanity and creation had been reconciled to the Father (Romans 5:10; 11 Corinthians 5:19). The indispensable action of God, that demands our constant attention and commitment, is His redemptive work through Jesus Christ. In Christ, we are reconciled to experience a new relationship of fellowship with God and each other; restored and forgiven. This is God's Mission and our vocation as disciples of Jesus.

This mission of God, for which Jesus lived and died and rose from the dead, is the responsibility of all disciples of Jesus. We have committed our lives, through Baptism, to proclaim God's power over sin, death and anything that would imprison the children of God, and to declare the eternal purposes of the God of hope. For this mission, we must constantly be renewed by the Holy Spirit to grow in Christ, so that God's action in Jesus Christ will be made known.

It is the indwelling presence of God, through the Holy Spirit, that deepens our faith, strengthens our commitment, and moves our will to be responsive with our time and talents, for the sharing of our experience and encounter with the risen Christ. This was the central focus and experience of the first Christians of the early church and it impacted the culture of their time and changed lives. The axiom memo dat quot non habit (one cannot give what one has not first received or possessed) is applicable to us. Our reluctance or resistance, to the movement of the Spirit within us, to grow in the faith and love of Christ, to be possessed by the faith and love of Christ and to share the faith and love of Christ is the litmus test of our commitment as disciples of Jesus. What gives meaning to our lives, is our participation in the Mission of God. How are we fulfilling our commitment as disciples of Jesus in God's mission? Are we inviting our friends to experience the transforming power of the Holy Spirit in worship at St. Andrew Parish Church?

Let us therefore, armed with the Holy Spirit, impact lives, and share our experience and encounter with the risen Christ. This is our mandate for mission.

We extend a warm welcome to all visitors who are worshipping with us today.

Gradual – Ancient words ever true

Holy words long preserved
For our walk in this world
They resound with God's own heart Oh,
let the ancient words impart

Words of Life, words of Hope
Give us strength, help us cope
In this world, where e'er we roam
Ancient words will guide us home

Repeat verse 1

Thanks, thanks

Thanks, thanks I give you thanks for all you've done
I am so blessed my soul is at rest
Oh Lord I give you thanks

Agnus Dei

1. Alleluia, Alleluia
For the Lord God
Almighty reigns (Repeat)

2. Alleluia, Holy, Holy are You Lord God Almighty
Worthy is the Lamb
Worthy is the Lamb

You deserve it

My hallelujah belongs to You (x4)
You deserve it (x4)

All of the glory belongs to You (x4)
You deserve it (x4)

My hallelujah belongs to You (x4)

Refrain

Ancient words ever true
Changing me and changing you
We have come with open hearts
Oh, let the ancient words impart

Holy words of our Faith
Handed down to this age
Came to us through sacrifice
Oh heed the faithful words of Christ

Thanks, thanks we give you thanks
for all you've done
we are so blessed our souls are at rest
Oh Lord we give you thanks

3. You are Holy, Holy
are you Lord God Almighty
Worthy is the Lamb
Worthy is the Lamb
Amen

You are my all in all

1. You are my strength when I am weak

You are the treasure that I seek

You are my all in all

Seeking You as a precious jewel

Lord, to give up I'd be a fool

You are my all in all

2. Taking my sin, my cross, my shame

Rising up again I bless Your name

You are my all in all

When I fall down You pick me up

When I am dry You fill my cup

You are my all in all

Refrain:

Jesus, Lamb of God

Worthy is Your name

Jesus, Lamb of God

Worthy is Your name

Jesus you're my firm foundation

Refrain

Jesus you're my firm foundation

I know I can stand secure

Jesus you're my firm foundation

I put my hope in your Holy Word

I put my hope in your Holy Word

1. I have a living hope (echo)

I have a future (echo)

God has a plan for me (echo)

Of this I'm sure, of this I'm sure.

Refrain

Recessional - Days Of Elijah

1. These are the days of Elijah

Declaring the word of the Lord,

And these are the days of Your servant, Moses

Righteousness being restored

These are the days of great trials

Of famine and darkness and sword

Still we are the voice in the desert crying

Prepare ye the way of the Lord!

3. You are my strength when I am weak

You are the treasure that I seek

You are my all in all

Seeking You as a precious jewel

Lord, to give up I'd be a fool

You are my all in all

4. Taking my sin, my cross, my shame

Rising up again I bless Your name

You are my all in all

When I fall down You pick me up

When I get dry You fill my cup

You are my all in all

Refrain

2. Your Word is faithful (echo)

Mighty in power (echo)

God has delivered me (echo)

Of this I'm sure, Of this I'm sure

Refrain (rept)

Chorus:

Behold He comes, riding on the clouds
Shining like the sun, at the trumpet's call
Lift your voice, it's the year of Jubilee
Out of Zion's hill, salvation comes
And these are the days of Ezekiel
The dry bones becoming as flesh
And these are the days of Your servant, David Rebuilding the temple of praise

2. And these are the days of Ezekiel
The dry bones becoming flesh
And these are the days of Your servant, David
Rebuilding a temple of praise

And these are the days of the harvest
The fields are all white in the world
And we are the laborers that are in Your vineyard
Declaring the Word of the Lord

Chorus (x2)

There's no God like Jehovah!
There's no God like Jehovah!
There's no God like Jehovah!
There's no God like Jehovah!

Did you know?

To pray is to change. Prayer is the central avenue God uses to transform us. If we are unwilling to change, we will abandon prayer as a noticeable characteristic of our lives. The closer we come to the heartbeat of God the more we see our need and the more we desire to be conformed to Christ. (Celebration of Discipline - Richard Foster)

Quote for Reflection

The only appropriate attitude in taking up the word of God is one of deep seriousness and submission. We do not seek to control or manipulate the Word, but allow it the freedom of our minds and hearts. We come as disciple for whom it is more fitting to be silent than to speak. There are times for sorting out thoughts, speaking about problems and putting into words what we feel toward God; there is also a time to be still, to wait, to listen. God’s Word invites a listening with the “ears of the heart” to the Word that has power to save our souls (see James 1:21). (Toward God, The Ancient Wisdom of Western Prayer - Michael Casey)

Question for Reflection: Which aspect of the five petitions of adoration, confession, thanksgiving, supplication, and intercession do we practice in our daily prayer? (BCP page 406 No. 93)
