The month of August is significant because of all the special celebrations associated with it. As a nation we observed both Emancipation and Independence at the start of the month. Then we received the joyful news of our members who have been named to receive National Awards this year, notably, Mr. John Lopez (the Order of Distinction; for his work with persons with disabilities especially in the field of Paraplegic Sports) and Mr. Audley Davidson (the Badge of Honour; for Meritorious Service as a Music Educator).

Within the last few days many of our young people have started to rejoice as they collect their CSEC and CAPE exam results. Yes, there are a few not totally happy with all the grades they achieved, but there is a sense of hope among them as all are assured of our love and support.

As we rejoice with our family and friends, our Epistle this morning cautions us that as we observe our achievements we must not “get drunk on alcohol...” but we are to be filled with the Spirit as we remind ourselves that it is our Jehovah Jireh who facilitates all the accomplishments we receive. The passage also expresses a message parallel to that found in the letter to the Galatians that encourages us to use every opportunity to work for the good of all, and especially for the family of faith. (6:9-10).

A warm welcome is extended to everyone worshiping with us, and especially to our guests sharing with us in our Eucharistic Service today. We also thank The Very Rev. Fr. Richard Tucker who returns as our celebrant and preacher this morning.

Blessings,

Mark Jones.
