According to the Gospels, Jesus had a daily routine in which he made contact with the people. Since he was perceived to be a popular Jewish rabbi, people wanted to hear from him, as he described the nature of God the Father which he demonstrated through his life and ministry. He constantly called the people to repent in order for them to participate in the transformative activity of God and for their lives to have meaning and purpose. To achieve his mission he called the twelve, who were later called apostles, to be his emissaries and witnesses to the people. He sent them out two by two to be engaged in proclamation, healing and liberation from death. "So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent" (Mk. 6:12). It is observed that Jesus did not ask the people to repent of their sins, rather he declared that in order for them to enter God's Kingdom they must change their mindset, lifestyle and way of life.

Just as the Pandemic has caused people everywhere to change and failure will place them at risk, regardless of race or religion, so it is with God's Kingdom. To enter, there must be a decisive decision by individuals to change, and embark on a new way of life, and a willingness to accept the transformation of their hearts and minds, which will produce a deep sense of well-being and a life of self-giving. In other words, our response to the gospel of repentance must be to ask ourselves, who do I want to be (identity) according to God's way and not just my own way, and also, how do I live out what I would like to be according to Jesus's way of life, which is the pathway to God's Kingdom. "Unless you repent you cannot enter the kingdom of God."

The major image for Christian conversion in the gospels is that of "turning". The verb metanoia means to change one's mind, and conveys the meaning of turning away from something. The turning to epistrepho, indicates not merely a state, instead it is a turning from a self-centered orientation and attitude to a heart which is self-giving and sacrificial. This is the spiritual rebirth that Jesus suggested to Nicodemus (John 3:1-8). Our natural birth with its human nature is inclined to be self-centered and the spiritual rebirth that comes from repentance generates a life of self-giving and self-sacrifice. Jesus required people to repent so that they may grow in faith and trust in him. This is more than having a moral compass, it is to live that selfless life which gives to us a sense of deep peace and real joy.

We extend a warm welcome to all our visitors who are worshipping with us today and to those who are viewing online.

MASS SETTING BASED ON HYMN TUNES

Lord have mercy (North Coates)

Lord, have mercy on us,
hear our humble plea,
Lord, have mercy on us,
set our spirits free

Christ have mercy on us,
hear us as we pray
Christ have mercy on us,
take our sin away

Lord have mercy on us,
hear our humble plea
Lord have mercy on us,
set our spirits free

Glory to God on High (Darwall's 148th)

Glory to God on high and peace to all on earth.
We worship you, we give you thanks, our heavenly King
We give you praise,
Almighty God and Father blessed in glory bright.

Our Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Father's only son
The sacrificial lamb, who saves the world from sin,
Have mercy Lord.
Beside the Father's hand enthroned, now hear our prayer.

You only are the Lord. You only are most high.
You only are the holy one, Lord Jesus Christ
And now you reign
With Father and with Spirit one in glorious light

Holy, most holy all holy Lord (Slane)

Holy, most holy all holy Lord
In power and wisdom forever adored.
The earth and the heavens are full of your pow'r,
our joyful hosannas re-echo above

Blessed, most blessed, all blessed is he,
whose life makes us whole, and whose death sets us free:
Who comes in the name of the father of light
let endless hosannas resounds in the height

The Lord's Prayer (Kum ba ya)

Father God in heaven,
Lord most high:
hear your children's prayer,
Lord most high:
hallowed be your name,
Lord most high
O Lord, hear our prayer.

2 May your kingdom come
here on earth;
may your will be done
here on earth,
as it is in heaven so on earth
O Lord, hear our prayer.

Give us daily bread. Day by day
And forgive our sins. Day by day.
As we too forgive. day by day.
O Lord hear our prayer

Lead us in your way. Make us strong
When temptations come. Make us strong Save us from all sins. Keep us strong.
O Lord hear our prayer

All things come from you. All are yours.
Kingdom, Glory, Power. All are yours.
Take our lives and gifts. All are yours.
O Lord hear our prayer.

O Lamb of God (Repton)

O Lamb of God, come and cleanse our hearts and take our sin away.
O Lamb of God, your grace impart and let our guilty fear depart, have mercy Lord we pray, have mercy Lord we pray

O Lamb of God, our lives restore, our guilty souls release,
Into our lives your spirit pour and let us live forevermore
In perfect heav'nly peace, In perfect heav'nly peace

Flysheets Pentecost IV – Missionary Sunday

Offertory Hymn: Take my life, my Lord

Take my life, my Lord, take my sufferings, O my Lord take my joys, take my tears, take my love take my mem'ry Lord, take my understanding Lord take my mind, take my freedom, take my will.

Take my talents, Lord, take my weaknesses, O Lord take my secrets, take my sorrows, take my sins.
Take me, all that I am, and make me empty of desire for your love and grace are everything I need.

Refrain:

Yours is my life

I abandon all I am to you, my God

yours are my hands,

Oh, yours are my feet

my heart and soul are yours, my Lord and God.

Take this bread, my Lord, take this wine I offer you take my labors, though imperfect, they are yours.
Take my prayers, my Lord, make me empty of desire for your love and grace are everything in need. R

Take my wake, my Lord, take my sleep, Oh Lord
Govern all that I am, my Lord and God Take my birth, my life; I want nothing from you, Lord.
for your love and grace are everything I need. R
