As we celebrate both Emancipation and Independence Day, we honour the activism and persistent uprising of our ancestors which reduced the plantation economy to be financially nonviable and unproductive. These actions of slaves, including Nanny, Cudjoe, Tacky, Sam Sharpe, Paul Bogle and others who mounted different forms of resistance to destabilize sugar production and the system of slavery which forced the British Government to pass the Emancipation Act of 1833 (effective 1834) which was terminated in 1838. The sacrifice of the few must be the focus of our annual celebration, so that each generation will recognize and acknowledge the price paid for the liberation of our human dignity and the freedom which we enjoy.

The uprising of slaves against their subjugation indicates their resolve never to accept their condition as their freedom is a God given right and that, they are created in the image and likeness of the God who said to the oppressors of Egypt, "Let my people go, so that they may worship me ..." (Ex.9:1b). The release of Hebrew slaves from bondage was seen as a liberating action of God, who raised up Moses to provide leadership for their exodus to the promised land. The Genesis creation narrative tells us that, we are created free to worship, work and engage in raising a family and building community. It is through our collective efforts as a people and the sustaining grace of God that we seek to achieve the goal of building a country to be the place of choice to live, work, raise families and to do business.

To accomplish this goal of building a just society demands that we eliminate poverty, the social inequities and transform our educational structure and system, that continue to contribute to the unacceptable level of crime, gun violence, illiteracy, domestic violence and child abuse. This will facilitate each generation to be empowered to achieve their fullest potential and development which is necessary for us, to have a stable family life for our wellbeing and a more cohesive and just society.

Our journey from the plantation house of bondage to the estate of freedom through Emancipation, demonstrates the unflinching commitment and courage of those who fought for our freedom. The journey from Stony Gut to Independence was achieved by the self-sacrifice and actions of those who fought for our self determination and for us to be free from fear and to enjoy the liberties which we often take for granted.

May our festivities be marked with our compliance with the public health protocols which are necessary for our health and safety.

We welcome His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Howard Gregory, Archbishop of the West Indies, who is our celebrant and preacher today and his wife Charmaine. We also extend a warm welcome to all our visitors who are worshipping with us today, and to those who are viewing online.

Flysheet Pentecost IX

Gradual Hymn: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes?

BEECH ER.8.7.8.7 D Carolyn Winfrey Gillette

1. "Is it lawful to pay taxes when they prop up Caesar's rule?"
So some people asked of Jesus, wanting him to seem a fool.
Saying "no" would be sedition; saying "yes" would be a sin.
Jesus changed the conversation, calling them to look within.
2. "Find a tax coin in your treasure; see the image that it bears.
Give to Caesar what is Caesar's. (Give to rulers what is theirs.)"
Yet he pressed on with his message; "Give to God what is God's own."
We who bear our Maker's image worship God and God alone.
3. Lord of all, in every nation, may your word be understood —
That we have an obligation to support the common good.
May our taxes, all together, fund our working hand in hand
So that life will be made better for all people in this land.
4. Still, we also hear your teaching: "Give to God what God is due."
May no ruler — overreaching — try to take the place of you.
May we listen to your message, may we honor what is yours;
May we, living in your image, seek your kingdom that endures.

Offertory: Jamaica land of beauty

Words by A.L. Hendricks/Music by Lloyd Hall

| 1. Jamaica land of beauty,
We promise faithfully
To serve thee with our talents
And bring our gifts to thee.
Jamaica we will always
In honour of thy name,
Work steadfastly and wisely
And never bring thee shame. | 2. Together in our country,
In love and brotherhood.
We'll work and play in freedom,
As all God's children should,
With hearts and hands united
In thanks for everything,
That God has given unto us,
Together let us sing, |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Refrain:

From riverside to mountain
From cane field to the sea,
Our hearts salute Jamaica,
Triumphant, proud and free.

The Lord's Prayer Fr. Ho Lung

Our Father who art in heaven,
Holy, holy, holy be Thy Name,
Our Father who art in heaven,
Holy be Thy name
Thy kingdom come on earth,
Thy will be done on earth,
Thy kingdom come on earth
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread (Repeat x

And forgive us our trespasses (Repeat)
As we forgive those who trespass against us,
Forgive us our trespasses.

Do not lead us into temptation (Repeat)
But,
deliver us from all evil, (Repeat)

For the kingdom the power and the glory are yours
Now and for ever and for ever more
Amen, Amen, Amen! X4
