Did you know?

Taking up one's cross is an analogy which means that "... Christ calls upon believers to be ready to sacrifice their selfish interests and to daily bear reproach, misunderstanding and shame in their service for him, even as He did in life and death."

(C. F. Pfeiffer, H. F. Vos, J. Rea, Wycliffe Bible Dictionary, 2008).

Quote for reflection

"The good news is surely an urgent word of assurance in our time, because our society and our world are close to shutdown and no one can see ahead. But women and men of faith know otherwise. We do not know because of great policies or big strategies. We do not know because of great resources or secret information. We know because we are part of the story of an alternative of new possibility, grounded in unconditional love, right in the middle of our lives".

The Gospel of Hope by Prof. Walter Brueggemann

Questions for reflection

- What aspect of the good news of the Kingdom do we need to hear and proclaim at this time? See Matthew 7: 25 - 33

Offertory: All Are Welcome (Marty Haugen, b. 1950)

1. Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions.
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.
2. Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true,
where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus.
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.
3. Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground
where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus,
is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us.
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 4. Let us build a house where hands will reach
beyond the wood and stone
to heal and strengthen, serve and teach,
and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger
bear the image of God's face;
let us bring an end to fear and danger.
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place. | 5. Let us build a house where all are named,
their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed
as words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter,
prayers of faith and songs of grace,
let this house proclaim from floor to rafter.
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place. |

Recessional: I just want to follow Jesus

1. You may be young and think the world is at your feet
Perhaps you live from day to day;
But I confess that I have met Lord Jesus Christ
And know that He's the only way.

Refrain:

- | | |
|---|---|
| I just want to follow Jesus,
Follow each and every day
And I want to praise and serve him
As I walk the narrow way
Where he leads me I will follow,
From the start until the end:
I will stay with him forever,
He's my nearest, dearest friend. | 5. If you have not as yet given your life to him,
I beg of you, do not delay;
I call on you to put your faith in Jesus Christ
And join with these words to say. R |
|---|---|

2. I'm growing older, wiser, seeing things more clear
And value this great friend I've made
That's why I try to show him off to my friends
And tell them of the price he's paid. R

Life has more meaning now that I've known Jesus Christ,
I've got the strength to cope with all
His spirit is my guide, whenever I am afraid,
And I will always heed his call. R

I consecrate my life to serving Jesus Christ,
I've made this pledge, to God indeed.
I put my trust in him and seek to do his will
He satisfies my every need. R
