“Baptism is the celebration of a person’s passing from outside the church to inside the church, from not belonging to Christ to becoming a member of his Body, from being enslaved to the spirit of evil to the freedom of the children of God who are animated by his Spirit to holiness. In short, it marks the withdrawal of a person from being counted among the “sons of disobedience” (Eph. 2:1) and one’s public commitment to the “obedience of faith.” This is of the essence of baptism, the sacrament of faith, and of the justification (the new relationship with God) which it mediates.

Christening: The making of Christians by Mark Searle

Quote for reflection

“Baptism in the primitive church was an eschatological sacrament. It meant that the person baptized was snatched out of a world delivered over to the immediately impending judgement of God (Acts 2: 38; Col. 1:13) and incorporated into the company of those redeemed by Christ’s saving work, an eschatological sealing in the last hour before the catastrophe.

Infant baptism in the first four centuries by: Joachim Jeremias

Questions for Reflection

- What are the attitudes and behaviors in the prevailing culture that are contrary to the fruit of the Holy Spirit recorded in Gal. 5:22-23?
- Since we are redeemed through Christ ‘s saving work, which we received in Baptism, what are our obligations for God’s mission according to the BCP Page 403 no.8.

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
