Gradual Hymn : I cannot tell why He, whom angels worship

1. I cannot tell why He, whom angels worship,
Should set His love upon the sons of men,
Or why, as Shepherd, He should seek the wand'ers,
To bring them back, they know not how or when.
But this I know, that He was born of Mary,
When Bethl'hem's manger was His only home,
And that He lived at Nazareth and labored,
And so the Savior, Savior of the world, is come.

2. I cannot tell how silently He suffered,
As with His peace He graced this place of tears,
Or how His heart upon the Cross was broken,
The crown of pain to three and thirty years.
But this I know, He heals the broken-hearted,
And stays our sin, and calms our lurking fear,
And lifts the burden from the heavy laden,
For yet the Savior, Savior of the world, is here.

Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know ?

The sixth Sunday of Lent is known as ‘The Palm Sunday’ and falls on the Sunday preceding Easter Sunday. The other name for this day in the Christian calendar is the Passion Sunday, Willow Sunday or Flower Sunday - as there was a practice of distributing either palms, flowers, willows etc. on this Sunday.

Quote for reflection

“To live such a radical life of discipleship demands a strong identification with Christ and the Church. To live this commitment demands ongoing transformation of the Christian spirit. The entire assembly, having been challenged by the Word, receives the courage to go forth by placing themselves on the Eucharistic table along with the bread and wine. As these simple elements are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ, the Church prays that each of the baptized might become one with Christ in the Spirit. As Christ came to heal, redeem, and sanctify, so too the Christian filled with the Spirit goes forth to be another Christ, bringing the saving Word to a people suffering from the evils present in today’s world.

(Koester, AY . Liturgy of Justice, 2002)

Questions for Reflection

How are you being used by Christ to bring light, joy and hope to others during this season.

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
