Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know ?

“The resurrection of Jesus is the prelude to the resurrection of those who believe in him, and who are united to him by faith and baptism. It is through the doctrine of resurrection in the New Testament, with its double strain of something already realized and something ‘not yet’ that we approach the doctrine of heaven. Here let the word ‘glory’ guide us in our approach. It is one of the marvelous words in the Bible, for it tells of heaven and the last things, but it also tells of human nature and the first things. God created men and women in His own image in order that they might come to a perfect relationship with their creator.”

Archbishop Michael Ramsey

Quote for Reflection

“The promise of the resurrection empowers the journey toward Christlikeness in this life - and necessitates it, if we hope to encounter death as a portal rather than a brick wall. This is the mystery that Jesus tried to communicate to his disciples; those who try to secure their own lives will lose them; those who give away their lives in acts of love, service and witness for Jesus’ sake will secure them for eternity (see Mk 8:35).”

Sacramental Life: Spiritual Formation through the book of common prayer by Prof. David A. daSilva

Question for Reflection

- What sacrifice are you willing to make in service to God’s people in the name of the risen Christ Jesus?

Canticle: God’s Paschal Lamb (Pascha Nostrum)

1. God’s Paschal Lamb is sacrificed for us;
Therefore with joy we keep the Easter feast;
forsaking sin, we share the bread of truth.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
2. Now Christ is raised and will not die again;
death has no more dominion over him;
Through him we die to sin and live to God.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
3. In Christ we see the first fruits of the dead:
though Adam’s sin had doomed all flesh to die,
in Christ’s new life shall all be made alive.
Alleluia, Alleluia! (Sine Nomine)
