Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know?

The word "steward" was created around the 1700s. Originally, it was a domestic term that referred to someone who was responsible for bringing food or drink into the dining room. Later, it came to mean the "manager" of a large household or of an organisation. For Christians, it came to mean all of us are managers of the resources God has given to us. These include our time, gifts, talents, money, material possessions and the environment.

Quote for Reflection

"How we use our God-given time talents is as important as how we use our financial resources. This pertains not only to church, but to every waking hour of our lives.

Every minute of every day is given to us by God. Do we use our time intentionally and fruitfully? Do we use it to build up God's Kingdom? Every moment need not be a productive one. In fact, our busyness can cause us to forget God. Time spent sitting silently with someone in need, slowing down, and praying is time well spent. Sabbath time, a day or other designated time during which we refrain from work, can connect us to God who gives us all we need."

Stewardship as a Way of Life by Nancy Hopkins-Greene & Betsy Schram

Question for Reflection

What portion of my time do I use to promote the faith of Jesus and the goodness of God's love and peace?

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say "Yes" to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
