Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know?

Before the mid-17th century, Jamaica, like the rest of the Caribbean, had a perfect ecosystem. In order to make room for cane fields, to construct buildings and to fuel sugar extraction furnaces, large amounts of lands were cleared and a vast number of trees were cut down. This mal-treatment of the environment continues to this day. Our Church recognises that this behaviour does not reflect good stewardship of God’s creation. For this reason, our Fifth Mark of Mission is “to strive to safeguard the integrity of creation, and sustain and renew the life of the earth.”

Quote for Reflection

“From a spiritual perspective, ecological justice is based on the belief that the Earth is sacred, and that it has become a victim of exploitation as also have vulnerable human communities. There is need for a renewed emphasis in our interpretation of Scripture to reveal its calls for ecological justice based on our responsibility for the marginalized and exploited - both human and non-human in relationship with each other.”

Quest for Ecological Justice in the Caribbean by Elizabeth Thomas-Hope

Question for Reflection

What practices in and outside the home do I need to change, in order to take better care of the environment?

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
