Faith Formation and Christian EducationDid you know?

The meaning of words evolves over time. This is true of the word “mission.” Today, the word has several meanings. One such meaning is “a congregation that is dependent on the support of an established congregation.” The hope is that the “mission” will become self-sufficient, and so support its own witness to the good news about Jesus in the community in which it is located. Up until the 16th century, however, the word “mission” was used only when speaking about the Trinity. The Father sent the Son into the world, and at a later point, the Father and the Son sent the Holy Spirit to continue the work the Son had begun.

Quote for reflection

Mission is “the participation of Christians in the liberating mission of Jesus...It is the good news of God’s love, incarnated in the witness of a community, for the sake of the world.”

Transforming Mission by David J. Bosch

Question for reflection.

In what way(s) can I partner with Jesus in his freedom mission in the spaces I find myself this week?

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
