Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know?

Anglicans summarise mission in the contemporary world in what is known as the “Five Marks of Mission.” These were developed by the Anglican Consultative Council over several years, beginning in 1984. Our Diocese, like many other Dioceses in the Communion, have adopted this vision of mission and encourages us to use them as the basis of action plans and creative mission ideas. The first Mark is “To proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom.”

Quote for reflection

“The story of God in Christ is the heart of all evangelism, and this story has to be told, for the life of the present church never fully reveals the love and holiness and power of God in Christ. The telling of this story is an inescapable mandate for the whole church; word accompanies deed as the kingdom throws its light ahead of its arrival and men and women seek to live in that light. The proclamation of the Good News is the announcement that the kingdom of God is at hand, a challenge to repent and an invitation to believe. Preaching expects conversion. Conversion implies a new relationship both with God and with others. It is individual and societal, vertical and horizontal, faith and works.”

James A. Scherer quoted in Alan Bailys “Evangelical and Ecumenical Understandings of Mission”

Question for reflection.

In what creative way(s) can I tell the people in my circle about Jesus and about what he requires of them?

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
