Did you know?

St. Francis of Assisi is the patron saint of animals and the environment. He expressed his devotion to God through the attention and care he gave to all of God’s creatures. Francis insisted that everything God made are siblings – members of a single-family – and, as such, they should be treated with respect, dignity and care. Francis’ love for the environment is shared by many of the saints.

Quote for reflection

“The saints...participate in the energies of God; that is to say, in his life, power, grace and glory. The energies...are not to be ‘objectified’ or regarded as an intermediary between God and man, a ‘thing’ or gift which God bestows on his creation. He who participates in God’s energies is therefore meeting God himself face to face, through a direct and personal union of love, in so far as a created being is capable of this.”

Father Kalistos Ware in The Orthodox Way

Question for reflection.

How can I express my devotion to God in the ways I treat the environment?

Food For The Soul

If there is one task that life sets us, one charge we must fulfill before we end our days, it is to love the whole world and labour for the whole world’s prospering, despite the finitude, evil, and death afflicting each of the world’s parts. Should we come to our end with such love, saying yes to all that (from the perspective of the finish) somehow “had” to be, we would be round successes. Should we not be able to muster such love, finish our time hateful or unsundering, our success would hang in brackets. Thus, the most practical wisdom any of us can grow, and the perennial reason for religion, is the strength to love life in the face of death, to respond “amen” to our history.

Sermon Hymn: To be like Jesus

1. To be like Jesus

To be like Jesus
 All I ask....
 To be like Him
 All through Life's journey
 From Earth to Glory
 All I ask ...
 To be like Him.

2. To be like Jesus

To be like Jesus
 All I ask....
 To be like Him
 Not in a measure
 But in its fullness
 All I ask ...
 To be like Him.

Recessional Hymn: O when the saints go marching in

O when the saints go marching in,
 O when the saints go marching in;
 O Lord, I want to be among the number
 When the saints go marching in!

O when they crown Him Lord of all,
 O when they crown Him Lord of all;
 O Lord, I want to be among the number
 When they crown Him Lord of all.

O when all knees bow at His name,
 O when all knees bow at His name,
 O Lord, I want to be among the number
 When all knees bow at His name.

O when they sing the Saviour's praise,
 O when they sing the Saviour's praise,
 O Lord, I want to be among the number
 When they sing the Saviour's praise.

O when the saints go marching in,
 O when the saints go marching in;
 O Lord, I want to be among the number
 When the saints go marching in!

The Collect of the day

The Ministry Of The Word

THE PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Leader: Holy and mighty God, how wonderful is all your creation; we give you thanks and praise for all you have given to us. We pray for the work of the church, and for all Christians in their vocation and for the ministry of our Lay People. We pray for Christians who work in dangerous or lonely places; we remember those who suffer persecution for their faith. We pray for shepherds of your flock, for all ministers of your word and sacrament for Howard, Archbishop; Leon Suffragan Bishop, Harold and Robert retired, for Sirrano, Craig, Claude, Bertram, Andrea, The Cathedral Chapter, Deans and other clergy and church workers.

Lord of the Saints

All: Strengthen our faith.

Leader: We pray for our nation. We pray for Patrick, Governor General; Andrew, Prime Minister; Mark, Leader of the Parliamentary Opposition; all Members of Parliament and the Senate. We pray also for the Judiciary that they may serve justice and protect and safeguard our human rights.

Lord of the Saints

All: Strengthen our faith.

Leader: We remember any who have lost their journey through life those who have lost their moral compass and spiritual values, all who are slaves to drugs or caught up in crime. We pray for developing countries, for a right use of the wealth and the resources of the earth. We remember all who are suffering from floods or famine. For all where the land is exhausted and crops are failing. We pray for our farmers and those who work in agriculture.

Lord of the Saints

All: Strengthen our faith.

Leader: We give thanks for our loved ones and all who have cared for them. We pray for all who have taught us to value our lives and each other. We pray for all to grow in tolerance and respect for each other. We pray for all who have lost vision or hope and have little support. We pray for our families, inner-city communities and those among whom we work and minister in the name of Christ.

Lord of the Saints

All: Strengthen our faith.

Leader: God of all power, we ask you to support all who are despondent. We pray for the exhausted, the weary and the worn, those who have run out of energy and all who can no longer cope on their own. We ask for blessing on all cancer and Lupus survivors and those who are suffering. We pray for friends and loved ones who are homebound and those who are ill. Lord of the Saints

All: Strengthen our faith.

Leader: We think of all those who have run the race, finished the course and kept the faith. We give thanks for our saints and all holy men and women. Lord, bless all our loved ones who are departed from us and keep them in life eternal. We remember the departed...

Lord of the Saints

All: Strengthen our faith.

Silence May Be Kept

Holy Father, you hear the prayers of the lowly, and forgive the sins of the penitent. Grant us a glimpse of your glory, a humility in our approach to you, and a deep awareness of your presence and love. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say "Yes" to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.
