Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know?

Since 1908 Christians from a wide cross-section of denominations have come together for what is known as the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU). The week begins on the Feast of the Confession of Saint Peter on January 18 and concludes with the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul on January 25. Each year ecumenical partners in a particular region were asked to prepare a basic text on a biblical theme. This year’s resources are prepared by the Middle East Council of Churches. The Theme is “We saw his star in the East, and we came to worship him.” The text is Matthew 2:1-12.

Quote for reflection

“Like the Magi who came from the East to Bethlehem to honour the Messianic King, we Christians are also pilgrims on the way toward full unit, in the diversity of our confessions and traditions. Let us pray together and keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, our only Lord.”

Pope Francis – Vatican News

Question for reflection.

- How can I partner with Christians of other traditions in bearing witness to Jesus?
• What gifts can I offer to the Lord as the Magi did on their visit to the Christ born in Bethlehem?
