Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.

Did you know?

This year is the 360th anniversary of the 1664 Book of Common Prayer. This Prayer Book was published one year before Jamaica became an English colony. It has served as the Prayer Book of our Diocese until we published our own Prayer Book in 1995. Speaking of the 1662 Prayer Book, the preface to our new Prayer Book says, "Many of us have grown to love it, and some persons will use no other book but that one when they participate in corporate worship." The Prayer Book is an expression of our Anglican commitment to living in community. As such, our life of prayer and worship is shaped, not by individual or personal tastes, but by community agreement and commitment.

Quote for reflection

"Community is one of the great antidotes to insecurity because it speaks to us of the assurance that 'we are all in it together'. It is achieved with a sense of commonality, of common goals. It is open to and welcomes arguments and diversity, but sets parameters, a boundary line, within which actions are taken...Two leading examples are the exodus of the people of Israel from Egypt...and the early years of the New Testament community of the Church..."

Archbishop Justin Welby in Reimagining Britain: Foundations for Hope

Question for reflection.

- In what ways can I participate more fully in the communal life of the Church?
• Which of our church's fellowship or outreach ministries can I join?
