A common devotional practice during Lent is known as “The Stations of the Cross.” The practice began in the 1500s and was popularised by the Franciscans. The exercise helps participants imaginatively and prayerfully retrace the steps of Jesus’ Passion – from his being condemned by Pilate to his being placed in a tomb. The steps are concentrated in 14 points or stations. Jesus’ journey is retraced through the eyes of his mother, Mary. Pictures of the stations are generally mounted inside a Church. It is not unusual, however, for them to be seen in other spaces.

Quote for reflection

“Our sacrifices in this season are so minuscule as to be laughable, except that our Father seems only too willing to use our tiny offerings as portals for his grace. Every hunger pang or caffeine craving becomes a holy prompt—pray, trust, surrender. The whole season becomes a bit delicious with anticipation: Easter is coming!”

Carolyn Francis
