Did you know ?

Mother’s Day has its origins in the Christian celebration of Mothering Sunday, observed on the fourth Sunday in Lent. The contemporary observation of Mother’s Day has its origins in America in the early 1900s. It celebrates the sacrifices mothers make for their children. It is not unusual for an important cause for women to be launched on Mother’s Day. In 1968, for example, Martin Luther King, Jr’s wife, Coretta Scott King, led a march in support for underprivileged women and children.

Quote for reflection

“For some the bible’s androcentric grammar and predilection for masculinizing God has become an idol, so much so that folk would rather be unmothered by God than embrace God or Christ as our mother. Yet God is so far beyond gender that in scripture God has a womb, birthed the sea and fathered the rain – though the bible stops short of giving God male parts; no one gender can contain God. God is trans, transgressive, trans-gender, transcontinental, transnational, trans-religious. God’s love transverses and encompasses all things.” Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney on “Christ our Mother” (Lk 13:34)

Question for reflection.

- What can I do this week to celebrate motherhood?
- How can I bear witness to others of God’s motherly care for all?
