For the Mission of the Church

Almighty God, look with compassion on the world you have redeemed by the death of Your son Jesus Christ. Move the hearts of many to offer themselves for the ministry of Your Church, strengthen us to bear witness to Christ, using the gifts received, so that by our lives and labours Your light may shine in the darkness and the coming of Your Kingdom be advanced; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour Amen.

Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know ?

The idea of vocation is central to the Christian belief that God has created each person with gifts and talents oriented toward specific purposes and a way of life. Vocation is especially associated with a divine call to service to the Church and humanity through life commitments such as marriage, consecration as a religious, ordination to the priestly ministry and a commitment to a holy life as a single person. In the broader sense, Christian vocation includes the use of one's gifts in their profession, family life, church and civic commitments for the sake of the greater common good.

Quote for reflection

“Every Christian, no matter who they are or what they do, are called to minister to others and make disciples. You could be a nurse, a business owner, a dog groomer, an athlete, or some crazy combination of the four, and you would still have the call by God to serve those around you and tell others about Jesus. That's the purest definition of ministry.” Jake Thurston .”

Question for reflection.

- What times will I set aside this week to reflect on my ministry as a Christian?
