A Prayer for Stewardship of Creation and the Environment

O God our creator, your beauty is beyond our imagining, all things look to you.
Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the splendor of creation, and teach us to have a reverence for the earth and its resources. Enable us, O Lord, to care for the environment, to cherish its gifts that surround us, and experience the joy of life in your presence, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen ©

Did you know ?

The Season of Creation is celebrated annually, beginning on September 1 and ending on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, October 4. The theme for this year's Season of Creation was "Listen to the Voice of Creation." The theme was inspired by the now popular online phenomenon of being muted during virtual conversations. Many voices are muted in public discourse around climate change and the ethics of Earth-keeping...These are the voices of those who hold generational wisdom about how to live gratefully within the limits of the land... This year's theme reminds us of our need to listen to the voice of all creation.

Quote for reflection

“The Psalmist (19: 1-4) acknowledges that hearing the voice of creation requires a kind of listening that is increasingly rare...Some of the earliest Christian writings refer to the concept of creation as a book from which knowledge of God can be read...Like the Psalmist, St. Maximus reminds us that the entire cosmos praises and glorifies God ‘with silent voices’, and that praise is not heard until we give it a voice, until we praise God in and with creation. St. Augustine writes, “[Creation] is the divine page that you must listen to; it is the book of the universe that you must observe...” Martin Luther wrote, “God has written [the gospel] not only in books, but also in trees and other creatures.” Season of Creation Guide, 2022
