Did you know

The Easter Anthem known as the “Pascha Nostrum” (Christ our Passover) is to be found on pages 37 and 64 of our Prayer Book. It is based on 1 Corinthians 5:7-8, Romans 6:9-11, and 1 Corinthians 15:20-22. It was put together by Archbishop Cranmer for the first Book of Common Prayer (1549), and was to be used as the initial song of praise in the Anglican rite for Easter Day. Today, it is customary for this canticle to be used instead of the Gloria in Excelsis from Easter Day to Pentecost.

Quote for reflection

The festival of Easter, which celebrates both the death and resurrection of Jesus, is the central festival of the Christian year. Not only does it celebrates what Jesus did for us by dying for us, but it also celebrates the fact that death is not the end. Jesus rose from the dead and by his resurrection gave us hope that we shall also be resurrected from the dead. We use light as a symbol of this new life.

Question for reflection

- What strategies can I use to help me commit the Easter Anthem to memory?
