For the Vocations and Ministry of the Church

Almighty God, look with compassion on the world you have redeemed by the death of Your son Jesus Christ. Move the hearts of many to offer themselves for the ministry of your Church, strengthen us to bear witness to Christ, using the gifts received, so that by our lives and labours your light may shine in the darkness and the coming of Your Kingdom be advanced; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour Amen. ©

Did you know ?

The word “vocation” is from a Latin word vocare that means “calling.” It speaks to the broad calling of an individual, how one responds to and lives out one’s relationship with Christ and others. Often, Christian vocation is spoken of in terms of mission and ministry. However, at its essence, it concerns our being and doing what God wants us to be and do, individually and as a community.

Quote for reflection

“The ministers of the Church are lay persons, bishops, priests, and deacons. The ministry of lay persons is to represent Christ and His Church; to bear witness to Him wherever they may be; and according to the gifts given them, to carry on Christ’s work of reconciliation in the world, and to take their place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church.”

CPWI Book of Common Prayer (pg. 402)

Question for reflection.

In what ways can I bear witness to Christ wherever I find myself this week?
