Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know?

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, a solemn period of repentance, fasting, and reflection for Christians leading up to Easter. The origins of Ash Wednesday can be traced back to the early Christian Church, where it became customary to mark the foreheads of penitents with ashes as a sign of mourning and repentance. This practice draws from biblical traditions of using ashes as a symbol of humility and sorrow for sin. The ashes used on Ash Wednesday are typically made from the palm branches blessed on the previous year's Palm Sunday, representing the cycle of death and rebirth. Today, Ash Wednesday remains a significant observance in many Christian denominations, symbolizing mortality, humility, and the call to turn away from sin and return to God.

Quote for reflection

“Ash Wednesday is full of joy... The source of all sorrow is the illusion that of ourselves we are anything but dust.” ~ Thomas Merton

Question for reflection

- How might you incorporate the lessons of Ash Wednesday into your daily life throughout the Lenten season and beyond?
- How can the awareness of our mortality on Ash Wednesday inspire us to live more intentionally and purposefully?

Processional - This Is the Day / I Will Enter His Gates

This is the day, this is the day that the Lord has made,
that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice,
we will rejoice and be glad in it,
and be glad in it.
This is the day that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.
This is the day,
this is the day that the Lord has made.

Open to us, open to us
the gates of God, the gates of God;
we will go in,
we will go in and praise the Lord,
and praise the Lord.
Open to us the gates of God;
we will go in and praise the Lord.
Open to us, open to us
the gates of God.

You are our God, you are our God;
we will praise your name, we will praise your name;
we will give thanks, we will give thanks for your faithfulness, for your faithfulness.
You are our God; we will praise your name;
we will give thanks for your faithfulness.
You are our God, you are our God;
we will praise your name.

I will enter His gates with thanksgiving in my heart

I will enter His courts with praise
I will say this is the day that the Lord has made
I will rejoice, for He has made me glad
He has made me glad, oh, He has made me glad
I will rejoice, for He has made me glad
He has made me glad, oh, He has made me glad
I will rejoice, for He has made me glad

Gradual - The Summons

1. Will you come and follow me
If I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown
In you and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind
If I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
And never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
Should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
In you and you in me?

Creed

I believe in Jesus
I believe He is the Son of God
I believe He died and rose again
I believe He paid for us all

And I believe He is here now
Standing in our midst
Here With the power to heal now
And the grace to forgive

3. Will you let the blinded see
If I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
And never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
And do such as this unseen,
And admit to what I mean
In you and you in me?

4. Lord, your summons echoes true
When you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
And never be the same.
In your company I'll go
Where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
In you and you in me.

I believe in You, Lord
I believe You are the Son of God
I believe You died and rose again
I believe You paid for us all.

And I believe You're here now
Standing in our midst
Here With the power to heal now
And the grace to forgive.

Offertory: Trading My Sorrows

Refrain

I'm trading my sorrows,
I'm trading my shame,
I'm laying them down for the joy of the Lord
I'm trading my sickness,
I'm trading my pain,
I'm laying them down for the joy of the Lord

We say, yes Lord, yes Lord, yes, yes Lord
Yes Lord, yes Lord, yes, yes Lord (thrice)
Amen

I'm pressed, but not crushed, persecuted, not abandoned,
Struck down, but not destroyed,
I'm blessed beyond the curse
For his promise will endure,
That his joy's gonna be my strength

Though the sorrow may last for the night
His joy come with the morning

During Com. You Are My Strength When I Am Weak

1. You are my strength when I am weak
You are the treasure that I seek
You are my all in all
Seeking You as a precious jewel
Lord, to give up I'd be a fool
You are my all in all

Refrain:

Jesus, Lamb of God Worthy is Your name
Jesus, Lamb of God Worthy is Your name

2. Taking my sin, my cross, my shame
Rising again I bless Your name
You are my all in all
When I fall down You pick me up
When I am dry You fill my cup
You are my all in all. R

From Heaven You Came

1. From Heaven, You came helpless babe
Entered our world, your glory veiled
Not to be served but to serve
And give Your life that we might live
