Prayer for Mission and Evangelism

Lord of the harvest, we thank You for the awesome privilege and responsibility You have given to us, to partner with You in Your Mission, the Mission of the Church. Equip and empower us by Your Holy Spirit, so that as we live and work, as we share Jesus with others in our own homes, our work places, in our churches, on the streets, by telephone, on the internet – whenever and wherever the opportunity arises so that lives might be touched and transformed, and souls healed and rescued for Your Kingdom.

Awaken Your Church to new and abundant life that Jesus came to give us. Help us all to share our experience of this new life with others in your name we pray.
Amen.

Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know ?

Through faith in the crucified and risen Christ we receive forgiveness of our sins, the gift of eternal life, and communion with God. Jesus overcame our two great enemies, sin and death, and is called pioneer of our salvation (1 Cor. 15:54-57, Heb. 2:10).

A Catechism based on the Book of Common Prayer

Quote for reflection

“Who are we in relationship to God as lover? Disobedient subjects, right? Of course not, we are the beloved in relationship to God as lover. It is a radically different image from God the finger-shaker calling us to account in earnest repentance. It is, instead, the image of God the lover who has loved us from the beginning, who loves us whether we know it or not, and who yearns that we enter into relationship”

The Changing Face Of God - Editor Frank Schmidt.

Question for Reflection

- How does my relationship with Jesus, help me to experience God’s love?

The Ministry of the Word

Types of Evangelism

Evangelism is an integral part of the mission of the church. Evangelism, simply put is taking advantage of opportunities to share what you know about Jesus, with others for the purpose of leading people into a personal relationship with God.

Relational Evangelism

Lifestyle evangelism occurs when a person establishes a rapport with a person and over a period of time earns the right to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is much different than "cold turkey" evangelism where we go door to door unannounced and share the gospel.

Friendship evangelism creates an environment of friendship and trust, which allow an unbeliever to become receptive and open to the gospel of Jesus Christ. In this case, the believer and unbeliever build a trusting relationship, and the unbeliever comes to understand and embrace the belief system of the Christian. We feel that an unbeliever is most likely to give a believer the opportunity to share his or her faith when the believer's life has first proven her/his subsequent words to be truthful and life-changing.

Servant evangelism takes several forms. Some of these are:

- † Small things done with great love, such as random acts of Kindness.
- † Meeting the needs of others through service projects.

These actions tend to soften the hearts of persons who are not yet Christians, with the intent of sharing the gospel with them. They are done with no anticipation of being paid for this service.

Personal Evangelizing

- 1) Begin with needs, listen to people's needs, listen to and try to understand their woundedness and heartaches.
- 2) Plan ministries and programs that address these real-life needs (these first two heart-values are essentially the posture of pre-evangelization)
- 3) Through preaching, religious education efforts, and faith-formation experiences, clearly and with consistency present, proclaim the message, the good news of God's Reign,
- 4) Facilitate multiple opportunities for people to meet or re-meet Jesus, and the God of Jesus (conversion).
- 5) Provide relational support for the journey of conversation, ideally these take the shape of small groups or fellowship groups, Alpha Programme and Lenten Devotions.
