Did you know ?

The office of the Archbishop of Canterbury has a long history. It was established with the appointment of St. Augustine as the first Archbishop in 597 - 604/5. Born in Rome, he was a Benedictine monk and prior at St. Andrew's in Rome.

When the English took Jamaica away from the Spanish in 1655, there was no Archbishop of Canterbury. This was because the takeover occurred during the period of English history known as the English Interregnum (1649-1660). This was a period of political and religious restructuring in which the Monarchy was abolished and the Church of England was disbanded. The Bishops of the church, including the Archbishop of Canterbury, were removed from office. Both were restored in 1660 when Charles II was made King and William Juxon was appointed as the new Archbishop of Canterbury. Archbishop Justin Welby is, therefore, the 29th Archbishop of Canterbury since Jamaica became an English colony, and 105th successor of Saint Augustine. He is the second to visit Jamaica. The first was Archbishop Ian Ramsay in 1968”

Quote for Reflection

"Dear Diocese of Jamaica and the Cayman Islands, beloved province of the West Indies, whom I love, but not a millionth as much as God, I say to you - do what you can, grow close to Jesus Christ, spend time in prayer and with scripture, and do what you can with the resources he gives you, and say to him, 'Lord, that's it. Unless you give us more, we cannot do more.'" ~ Archbishop Justin Welby

Question for Reflection

- How can I use the resources God has given me to support the ministry of the Church?

The Collect for the Day

The Ministry of the Word

Mission and Evangelism Ministry

What is our commitment to the faith of Jesus Christ?

- It is to witness to God's love revealed in the crucified and risen Jesus Christ.

What is our purpose?

- To bring others into a relationship with God in Christ through our witness, mission and the service.

What is our ministry as baptized disciples of Jesus Christ?

- Our ministry as baptized disciples is to represent Christ and His Church; to bear witness to Him wherever we may be, and according to the gifts given to us, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world, and to take our place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church.

The Mission Statement

The mission of the St. Andrew Parish Church is to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ and inspire the parish family to unity with God and one another

- By ensuring that the church establishes programs to maintain, engage and expand membership
- By identifying and mobilizing the human and financial resources available to the church.
- By responding to human needs as we work for the transformation of unjust structures and the preservation of the integrity of the created order.
- By presenting the Biblical tithe as the standard of Christian giving and the shaping of programmes of ministry that express the stewardship of God's creation.
- By immersing our members in and expanding the knowledge of Christian identity in the context of our cultural experience and the obligations they impose.
