Intentional Discipleship Prayer of the Diocese

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened Your Church to hear again, the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him and learn from Him. Grant that as we say “Yes” to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if He were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen.

Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know

Since its formation in 2012, the St. Andrew Parish Foundation has developed a comprehensive tour of the church and its cemetery, accompanied by a brochure for visitors. This tour emphasizes the significant role the St. Andrew Parish Church has played in the life of our country and diocese. For instance, it was the home church for some of our nation's top leaders, and, of the 28 ordinations conducted by Bishop Christopher Lipscombe during his episcopacy, 24 took place at SAPC. The tour, designed and coordinated by the Foundation's Board under the leadership of the late George Briggs, was presented to visitors in two segments: an initial virtual presentation led by Las Newman; followed by a tour of the church conducted by Brother John Aarons and a cemetery tour conducted by Brother Tony Patel. The Foundation has hosted tours for church members as well as visitors from our major universities, the British High Commission, and several groups interested in heritage and cultural tourism.

Quote for Reflection

"So what makes for a better future? For when we come to worship God, when we come to serve Jesus Christ, we are all equal. Even those who have sinned terribly. And we are all equal for to God all time is now. What we have done, remains in the present both for Good and Evil. And where there is repentance, we know that by the grace and love of God, as we sang 'Nothing in my hands I bring, simply to your grace I cling', there is a burial of sin. But there is not a reversal of history" - Archbishop Justin Welby

Question for Reflection

- What steps can I take today to contribute to a better future, both for myself and others, in light of God's grace?
- In what ways can I cling more closely to God's grace, especially when I feel burdened by my past?

Liturgy for Sundays after Pentecost

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost.

August 11, 2024

President: The hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in Spirit and in truth, for such the Father seeks to worship Him. (John 4:23)

President: + Praise the Father, Son and Holy Spirit Alleluia! Alleluia
All: Worthy of Praise forever and ever Alleluia! Alleluia

President: Alleluia. Worship the Lord in the beauty of Holiness
All: Come let us adore the Lord. Alleluia

President: Alleluia The Lord has shown forth His glory
All: Come let us glorify the Lord. Alleluia

President: Alleluia. Our God shall reign forever.
All: Let us praise and exalt the Lord forever. Amen. Alleluia

The Collect For Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your Holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria In Excelsis Mass of St. Thomas - David Thorne

Refrain: Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to His people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory. R

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. R

For you alone are the Holy One; you alone are the Lord:
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. R
