Faith Formation and Christian Education

Did you know ?

The period from the Monday after Pentecost through to the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent is known as “Ordinary Time.” The first Sunday of this season is Trinity Sunday, and the last Sunday is Christ the King Sunday. For some, the period is referred to as “ordinary” because it speaks to that part of the liturgical year that is not included in the major seasons of the church calendar. For others, the word “ordinary” means numbered (think ordinal numbers), because the Sundays of the period are assigned a number. Most think of ordinary time in terms of the living out of Christian faith and the meaning of Christ’s resurrection in ordinary life. It may be referred to as the “green season,” because green is the usual liturgical colour for this period of the church year.

Quote for reflection

“We must not let the ordinary stay ordinary or simply sit around and wait for something ‘special’ to celebrate. In a similar way, most spirituality is not mainly about spiritual highs or lows’—dramatic or graphic reminders of God’s grace and action in our life or periods of mourning. The best spiritual guides all insist that spirituality is about being present to the real as it surrounds us in ordinary time and place. As John Ruskin once put it: ‘The secret of happiness lies in taking a genuine interest in all the details of ordinary daily life and elevating them into an art.’” — John Coleman

Question for reflection

- How can I cultivate a practice of finding the extraordinary in the ordinary moments of my daily life, rather than waiting for rare or dramatic occurrences to celebrate or engage with my spirituality?

The Collect for the Day & Ministry of the Word

Psalms 50 Metric C.M. paraphrased

1. The Lord has spoken, God of gods,
He calls the earth from east to west;
From Zion, perfect in its grace,
He makes his glory manifest.
2. Our God will come with raging storm,
Consuming flame, and not be still;
He calls the heavens and earth to see
As now his people hear his will.
3. "Assemble all my followers
Who sealed the bond with sacrifice;"
For God the Lord himself is judge;
Let heaven declare his cause is right.

All glory to the Father, Son,
And to the Holy Spirit be;
As from the first it was, is now,
And will be for eternity.

D. C: My Jesus, my Savior

1. My Jesus, my Savior
Lord there is none like You
All of my days, I want to praise
The wonders of Your mighty love
My Comfort, my Shelter
Tower of Refuge and Strength
Let every breath, all that I am
Never cease to worship You.

Refrain

Shout to the Lord All the earth let us sing
Power and majesty Praise to the King
Mountains bow down And the sea will roar
At the sound of Your Name
I sing for joy at the work of Your hands
Forever I'll love You, forever I'll stand
Nothing compares to The promise I have in You.
