Faith Formation and Christian Education

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King which marks the final Sunday of the church year. On this day the church recognizes in a special way Jesus as the Messiah sent from God to restore the broken relationship between God and God's creation. The collect says that it was the divine will of God to restore all things in Christ, who is the King of kings and Lord of lords.

In some way the readings for this week points to the reality of Jesus' kingship. In the reading from Jeremiah, the prophet issued a warning to the Shepherds (Kings) who had caused God's people to be scattered. The prophet also declared that God would one day raise up a Shepherd from the line of David who would save God's people. A king who would execute justice and righteousness in the land.

In the letter to the Colossians, the writer confesses Jesus as the image of God who made it possible for humanity to see God in a way that was not otherwise possible. The writer also hails Jesus as the beginning of all things and the head of the body, the church. Through the resurrection Jesus made it attainable for all people to be reunited with God.

In the gospel reading Jesus' kingship is evidenced as he prays for the forgiveness of those who were responsible for his crucifixion. This kingship is also seen in how He pardoned the criminal and offered him a place with Him in paradise. It is this King the church celebrates today whose mission it was to bring all people back into a loving relationship with God.

Question for Reflection

- What kind of King is Jesus for the church?
- In what way is Jesus King of Kings?
- What is the Job description of the Servant King according to Isaiah 42:1-9?

The Budget from the outreach projects are to be submitted to the Church Office by November 30, 2025.

We express thanks to our members who continue to give sacrificially to ensure that the ministry and mission of the church are sustained as we continue to witness and minister in these challenging times.

Readings for November 30, 2025: Isaiah 2:1 - 5; Psalm 122; Romans 13:11 - 14; Matthew 24:36 - 44.

Benedictus Canticle: (Old) Chanted (All stand)

1. Blessed be the Lord' God of' Israel;
*for he hath visited' and redeemed his' people;
2. And hath raised up a mighty salvation' for us,
* in the' house of his' servant' David;
3. As he spake by the mouth of his' holy Prophets,
*which have been' since the' world began;
4. That we should be' saved from our' enemies,
*and from the' hands of' all that' hate us:
5. To perform the mercy promised' to our forefathers,
*and to remember his' holy' covenant;
6. To perform the oath which he swore to our' forefather' Abraham,
*That' he would' grant us.
7. That we being delivered out of the' hands of our' enemies
*might' serve him without' fear,
8. In holiness and' righteousness before him, *all the' days of' our life.
9. And thou child shalt be called the' Prophet of the' Highest:
*for thou shalt go before the face of the' Lord to prepare his' ways;
10. To give knowledge of salvation' unto his' people
*for the remission' of their sins;
11. Through the tender mercy' of our God;
*whereby the day-spring' form on' high hath' visited us;
12. To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the' shadow of death.
*and to guide our feet' into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the son, *and' to the Holy' Ghost
As it was in the beginning, is now, and 'ever' shall be, *world without, end. A-men.
